

Guidelines for Handling School Complaints

G.T. (Ellen Yeung) College

1 September 2023

Introduction

As a well-established Direct Subsidy School (DSS), G.T. College endeavours to improve its school management and enhance its school success. All complaints, formal or informal, will be handled carefully and fair (See Notes on p.11).

If you believe you fall victim related to discrimination or abuse on the grounds of gender, race, age, ability, tendency, or the like, you may lodge a complaint. Please observe if you have fulfilled the following criteria and guidelines before you go for any complaints handling procedures.

If you have any ideas about improving the school system, you are more than welcome to contact us via any business correspondence.

1. The responsible staff member should acknowledge receipt of the complaint by using the Acknowledgement Letter. There are two kinds of acknowledgement letters suited for different situations which can be found in Appendices II and III.
2. For an informal complaint, an office staff member or a teacher may be able to respond to the inquiry or opinion raised by the complainant.
3. If an informal complaint has been completely handled, the responsible staff member has to fill in the Record Sheet of Complaint Cases Handled by Informal Procedures for record purposes (Appendix I).
4. For a formal complaint, appropriate staff or people at senior level will conduct an investigation at the investigation stage and the appeal stage, which are shown in the table below:

Targets involved in the complaint	Investigation stage	Appeal stage
Daily operation and internal affairs (no people)	Assistant Principal	Vice-Principal
School Staff	Assistant Principal	Vice-Principal
Teacher	Vice-Principal	Principal
V.P	Principal	Vice-Supervisor
Principal	Vice-Supervisor	Supervisor
Supervisor/ School Governor	SMC Board Chairman	SMC Appeal Task Force

5. If a formal complaint has been completely handled, the responsible staff member has to fill in the Record Sheet of Complaint Cases Handled by Formal Procedures for record purposes (Appendix IV).
6. In response to unreasonable persistent complaints, the responsible staff member should use the Reply Card (Appendix V).

7. An informal complaint (inquiry or opinion for improvement/change) or a formal complaint (disappointment which requires the school to seriously fix the problem) to the school by different means of communication (e.g., phone, letter, e-mail, fax, in person) should follow the following procedures of Diagram 1.

Notes for Complainants

- Anonymous complaints will not be processed. However, if the anonymous complainant leaves his/her contact information, the school will try to contact him/her for record-keeping and feasible settlement.
- Complainants will be invited to the school for an interview.
- Complaints with only the email info and without the complainant's contact number will not be processed.
- The matter of the complaint must be related to the complainant himself/herself or his/her immediate family members (such as children), otherwise the complaint will not be handled.
- The school may decide not to conduct or to discontinue an investigation if the complaint is lacking in substance, vexatious, or the act complained of is not unlawful, or a period of more than 12 months has elapsed since the alleged act was done.
- The complainant has a general responsibility to provide information to support a complaint. When formulating a complaint in writing, the complainant should provide –
 - The complainant's personal details
 - information identifying the respondent
 - date(s) when the alleged unlawful act(s) occurred
 - facts of the alleged incident(s)
 - any information in support of the complaint
 - names, contact information and statements of witnesses (if any)
 - loss or harm experienced
